Session / Workshop chair(s)

Peter Alfandary PRA CrossCultural & Development, London, England; Co-Vice Chair Senior Lawyers' Committee

Description

The session will look at how gender issues ‘play out’ in the legal profession in different jurisdictions – their relevance as to how practices are run in various countries; how female professionals are perceived and possibly treated in such jurisdictions (both by colleagues and clients) and women’s roles in various jurisdictions in law firm management. As with the session at the IBA Annual Conference in Tokyo 2014, the cross-cultural issues will be a central part of the session.
